

1866-001 Chancery Causes: Eli B. Crockett vs William L. Stubblefield
Lee Co.

CA - Debt

To the worshipful the county Court of Lee county in chancery sitting the bill of Complaint of Eli B. Crockett of said county respectfully represents that on the 31st day of March 1860 one William Stubblefield obtained a judgement, ^{at law} before J. M. Scott a Justice of Lee county against your Orator for the sum of $22.56 business interest and costs your orator would further state that said William Stubblefield obtained another judgement before the said J. M. Scott Justice as aforesaid for the sum of $11.66, ^{the} the 10th day of April 1860 together with interest & costs. which judgements at law as aforesaid your orator conceives ought to be perpetually enjoined, to show which your orator would state that the judgements at law were founded upon two notes executed ^{by} your orator to said Stubblefield in consideration of medical services rendered by said Stubblefield and at the time of the execution of said notes your orator had an account which was unsettled against said Stubblefield for work done in his saddle shop amounting ^{with interest from the 28th of April 1853} to the sum of $13.74, which amount the said Stubblefield agreed should be paid as a credit upon said notes when ascertained and at the same time the said Stubblefield requested your Orator to lift an account from the firm of Crockett & Crockett ^{& S. Crockett} which he owed to them amounting to the sum of $7.00, ^{with interest from the 26th of Decr 1854} to the extent for which the said Stubblefield agreed your orator should have a credit upon said notes which account your Orator did lift & settle as directed by the said Stubblefield
